How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

SEI Investments Canada Company has rated the volatility of this fund as Low.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What is a Mutual Fund and What Are the Risks of Investing in a Mutual Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Class E units of the fund have performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how Class E units of the fund have performed in each of the past 10 calendar years. The fund dropped in value in 4 of the past 10 years. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for Class E units of the fund in a 3-month period over the past 10 years. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	4.1%	June 30, 2020	Your investment would rise to $1,041
Worst return	-5.5%	June 30, 2013	Your investment would drop to $945

Average return

This section shows the value and annual compounded rate of return of a hypothetical $1,000 investment in Class E units of the fund. A person who invested $1,000 in the class 10 years ago has $1,020 as of May 31, 2023. This works out to an annual compound return of 0.2%.

Investors who:

- want a diversified fixed-income investment with regular income and protection of capital;
- are planning to hold their investment for the medium term; and
- have a low level of investment risk tolerance.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class E units of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

No sales charges are payable for purchases made directly through SEI Investments Canada Company or authorized brokers and dealers.

2. Fund expenses

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice your representative and their firm provide to you.

SEI Investments Canada Company pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. The trailing commission can be up to 0.60% of the value of your investment each year. This could be up to $6.00 each year on a $1,000 investment.

U.S. High Yield Bond Fund -- Class E(H)

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

SEI Investments Canada Company has rated the volatility of this fund as Low to Medium.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the "What is a Mutual Fund and What Are the Risks of Investing in a Mutual Fund?" section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Class E(H) units of the fund have performed over the past 10 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how Class E(H) units of the fund have performed in each of the past 10 calendar years. The fund dropped in value in 3 of the past 10 years. The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for Class E(H) units of the fund in a 3-month period over the past 10 years. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	10.3%	July 31, 2020	Your investment would rise to $1,103
Worst return	-14.0%	March 31, 2020	Your investment would drop to $860

Average return

This section shows the value and annual compounded rate of return of a hypothetical $1,000 investment in Class E(H) units of the fund. A person who invested $1,000 in the class 10 years ago has $1,252 as of May 31, 2023. This works out to an annual compound return of 2.3%.

Who is this fund for?

Investors who:

- are looking for income and the potential for capital gains primarily through investments in non-investment grade bonds/securities of U.S. issuers;
- wish to gain exposure to foreign securities but wish to minimize exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency;
- are willing to hold their investment for the medium to long term; and
- have a low to medium level of investment risk tolerance.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Class E(H) units of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among classes of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

No sales charges are payable for purchases made directly through SEI Investments Canada Company or authorized brokers and dealers.

2. Fund expenses

More about the trailing commission

The trailing commission is an ongoing commission. It is paid for as long as you own the fund. It is for the services and advice your representative and their firm provide to you.

SEI Investments Canada Company pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment.
